"It is my great pleasure, and humble regard for the service people who have made history at Travis Air Force Base in California, to lend my support for the new Jimmy Doolittle Air and Space Museum. It's a remarkable span of history the new museum plans to bring to light with stories and interactive exhibits.

Join me in supporting the new museum. Get involved, support the fund raising campaign."

- Tom Hanks

The Jimmy Doolittle Air and Space Museum Foundation is onto the new phase with the exciting "Wings of Valor Capitol Campaign", co-chaired by Herman Rowland Jr. and Jay Adair, to build the new Museum at Travis Air Force Base. Visit our website at www.jimmydoolittlemuseum.org or call (707) 425-4625 Ext. 109 for more information on how you can make a difference!
