Visiting the Travis Air Museum

Visitors are welcome to come to one of the largest collections of aircraft on the west coast. We have both a large exterior and interior collection for your viewing. We are open from 0900 to 1600 hrs Tuesday through Saturday. We have a gift shop on sight but no snack bar. If you are required to get a pass to enter Travis AFB, (see Access to Travis AFB) then you are not allowed to use any base restaurant, or facility, not directly supported through the Travis Air Museum, unless you are escorted by someone who has official access. Food is available at several restaurants located outside the main gate. If you wish to bring your own food or cooler with you, then we do have a small picnic area available for your use.

Directions to the Travis Air Museum from the Travis Visitors Center

Take left out of Visitors Center parking lot, towards main gate. Go through main gate and then go 5 lights and take right at the C-141, Golden Bear. Museum will be on your left. Pull into parking lot and you may park your vehicle anywhere.

Events held at the Travis Air Museum

If you are holding an event requiring space inside the museum please be aware of our limitations. We have an area approximately 80 ft x 35 ft inside; a larger area is available outside. We have about 90 chairs and 8 tables. We have a podium and sound system for your use. Please bring at least 2 AA batteries with you, for the sound system mic. We may not have any additional good batteries at the time of your event if they fail. If you require any additional equipment you will have to provide it yourself.

Please be aware that the Travis Air Museum staff do not set up or tear down event tables, chairs, or equipment. You will need to provide people to set up your event. At the close of your event you are required to break down and clean your area. Museum staff will provide all materials for the clean up and inspect the area prior to release.

Please be advised the Travis Air Museum has a very limited ability for cold storage. Please make other arrangements if you will be having food or beverages at your event.

Tours requiring a Docent

If during your visit you require a Docent to lead a tour please notify the Travis Air Museum staff at least one week prior to the tour. Please provide the number and average age, in your party and time of tour. Be advised that we have special guidelines for student tours. Please contact our staff for the specifics. *If you will require base access please read Access to Travis AFB.
